

When is your busiest time of year?

0
Spring

10
Summer

3
Autumn

0
Winter

What can you do to encourage people to engage with your sacred space?

Simple prayers on display

Ask people what they would like, and why.

Prayer cards

Pebbles

We have a prayer tree

Prayer tree

Give visitors time and space to sit quietly

Good interpretation

Ideas for ways to pray displayed

What can you do to encourage people to engage with your sacred space?

little prayers during opening times

prayer tree

Place to write prayers

Music

Prayer leafs pegged to a tree

Coffee morning with prauers

Space and the time to sit

prayer cards to take way, free

Light a candle

What can you do to encourage people to engage with your sacred space?

We have a bowl and people are encouraged to put one in and pray

Prayer tree

Take away a candle and light at home

organ playing

Prayer cards, prayer tree and small cards

We have a coffee morning with prayers

Take away cards with a prayer dedicated quiet prayer area (in Baptistry which is secluded from nave and chancel)

A Thanksgiving Tree with labels and pencils (not during Covid) A bowl with pebbles - hand sanitiser - hold pebble and say prayer.

What can you do to encourage people to engage with your sacred space?

Bibles on each pew and suggested readings

Alpha Course leaflets

Appreciate creation in churchyard

Music

Bible in every pew (Good News Trans) - pre Covid!

interactive videos explaining the story of christ

Prayer space with room for requests

Let's visitors know thinking of them and not just us

Short interpretation cards explaining significance of different areas

What can you do to encourage people to engage with your sacred space?

Put up prayers on the wall.

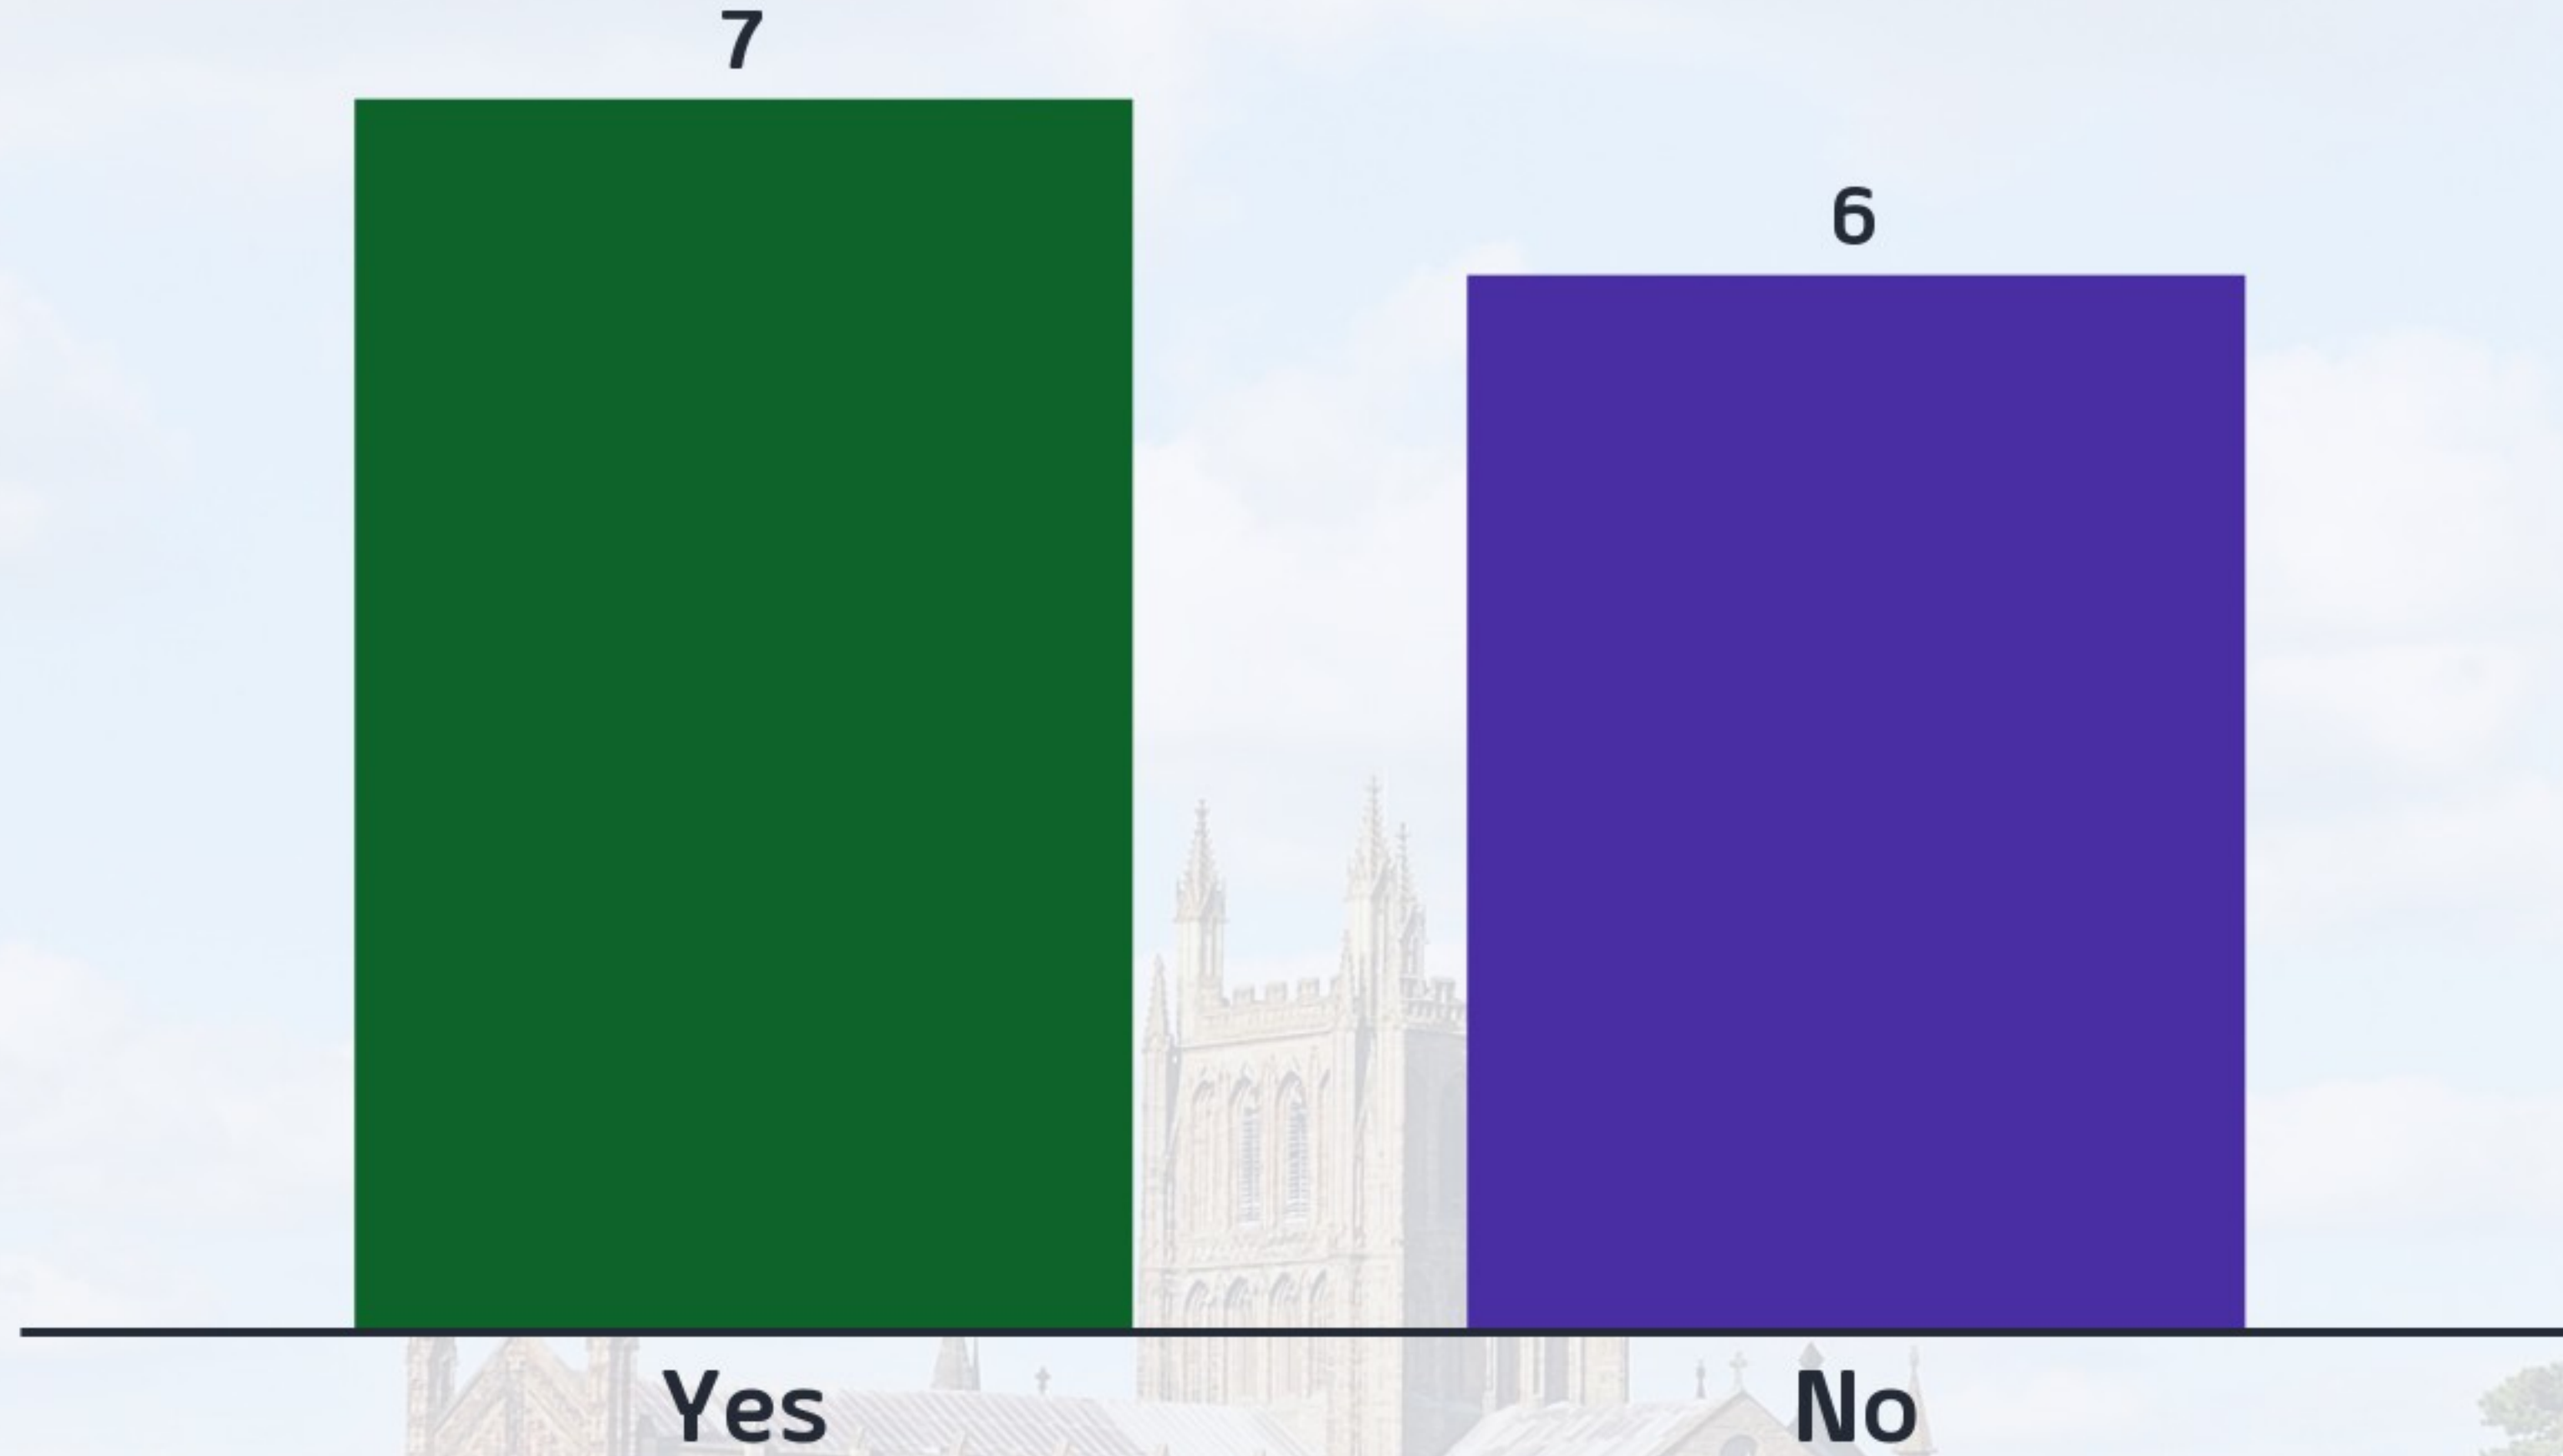

Telling the story of God and man in your storytelling

Direct to bench to sit and look at view

Arts

We have Gospels free to take away.

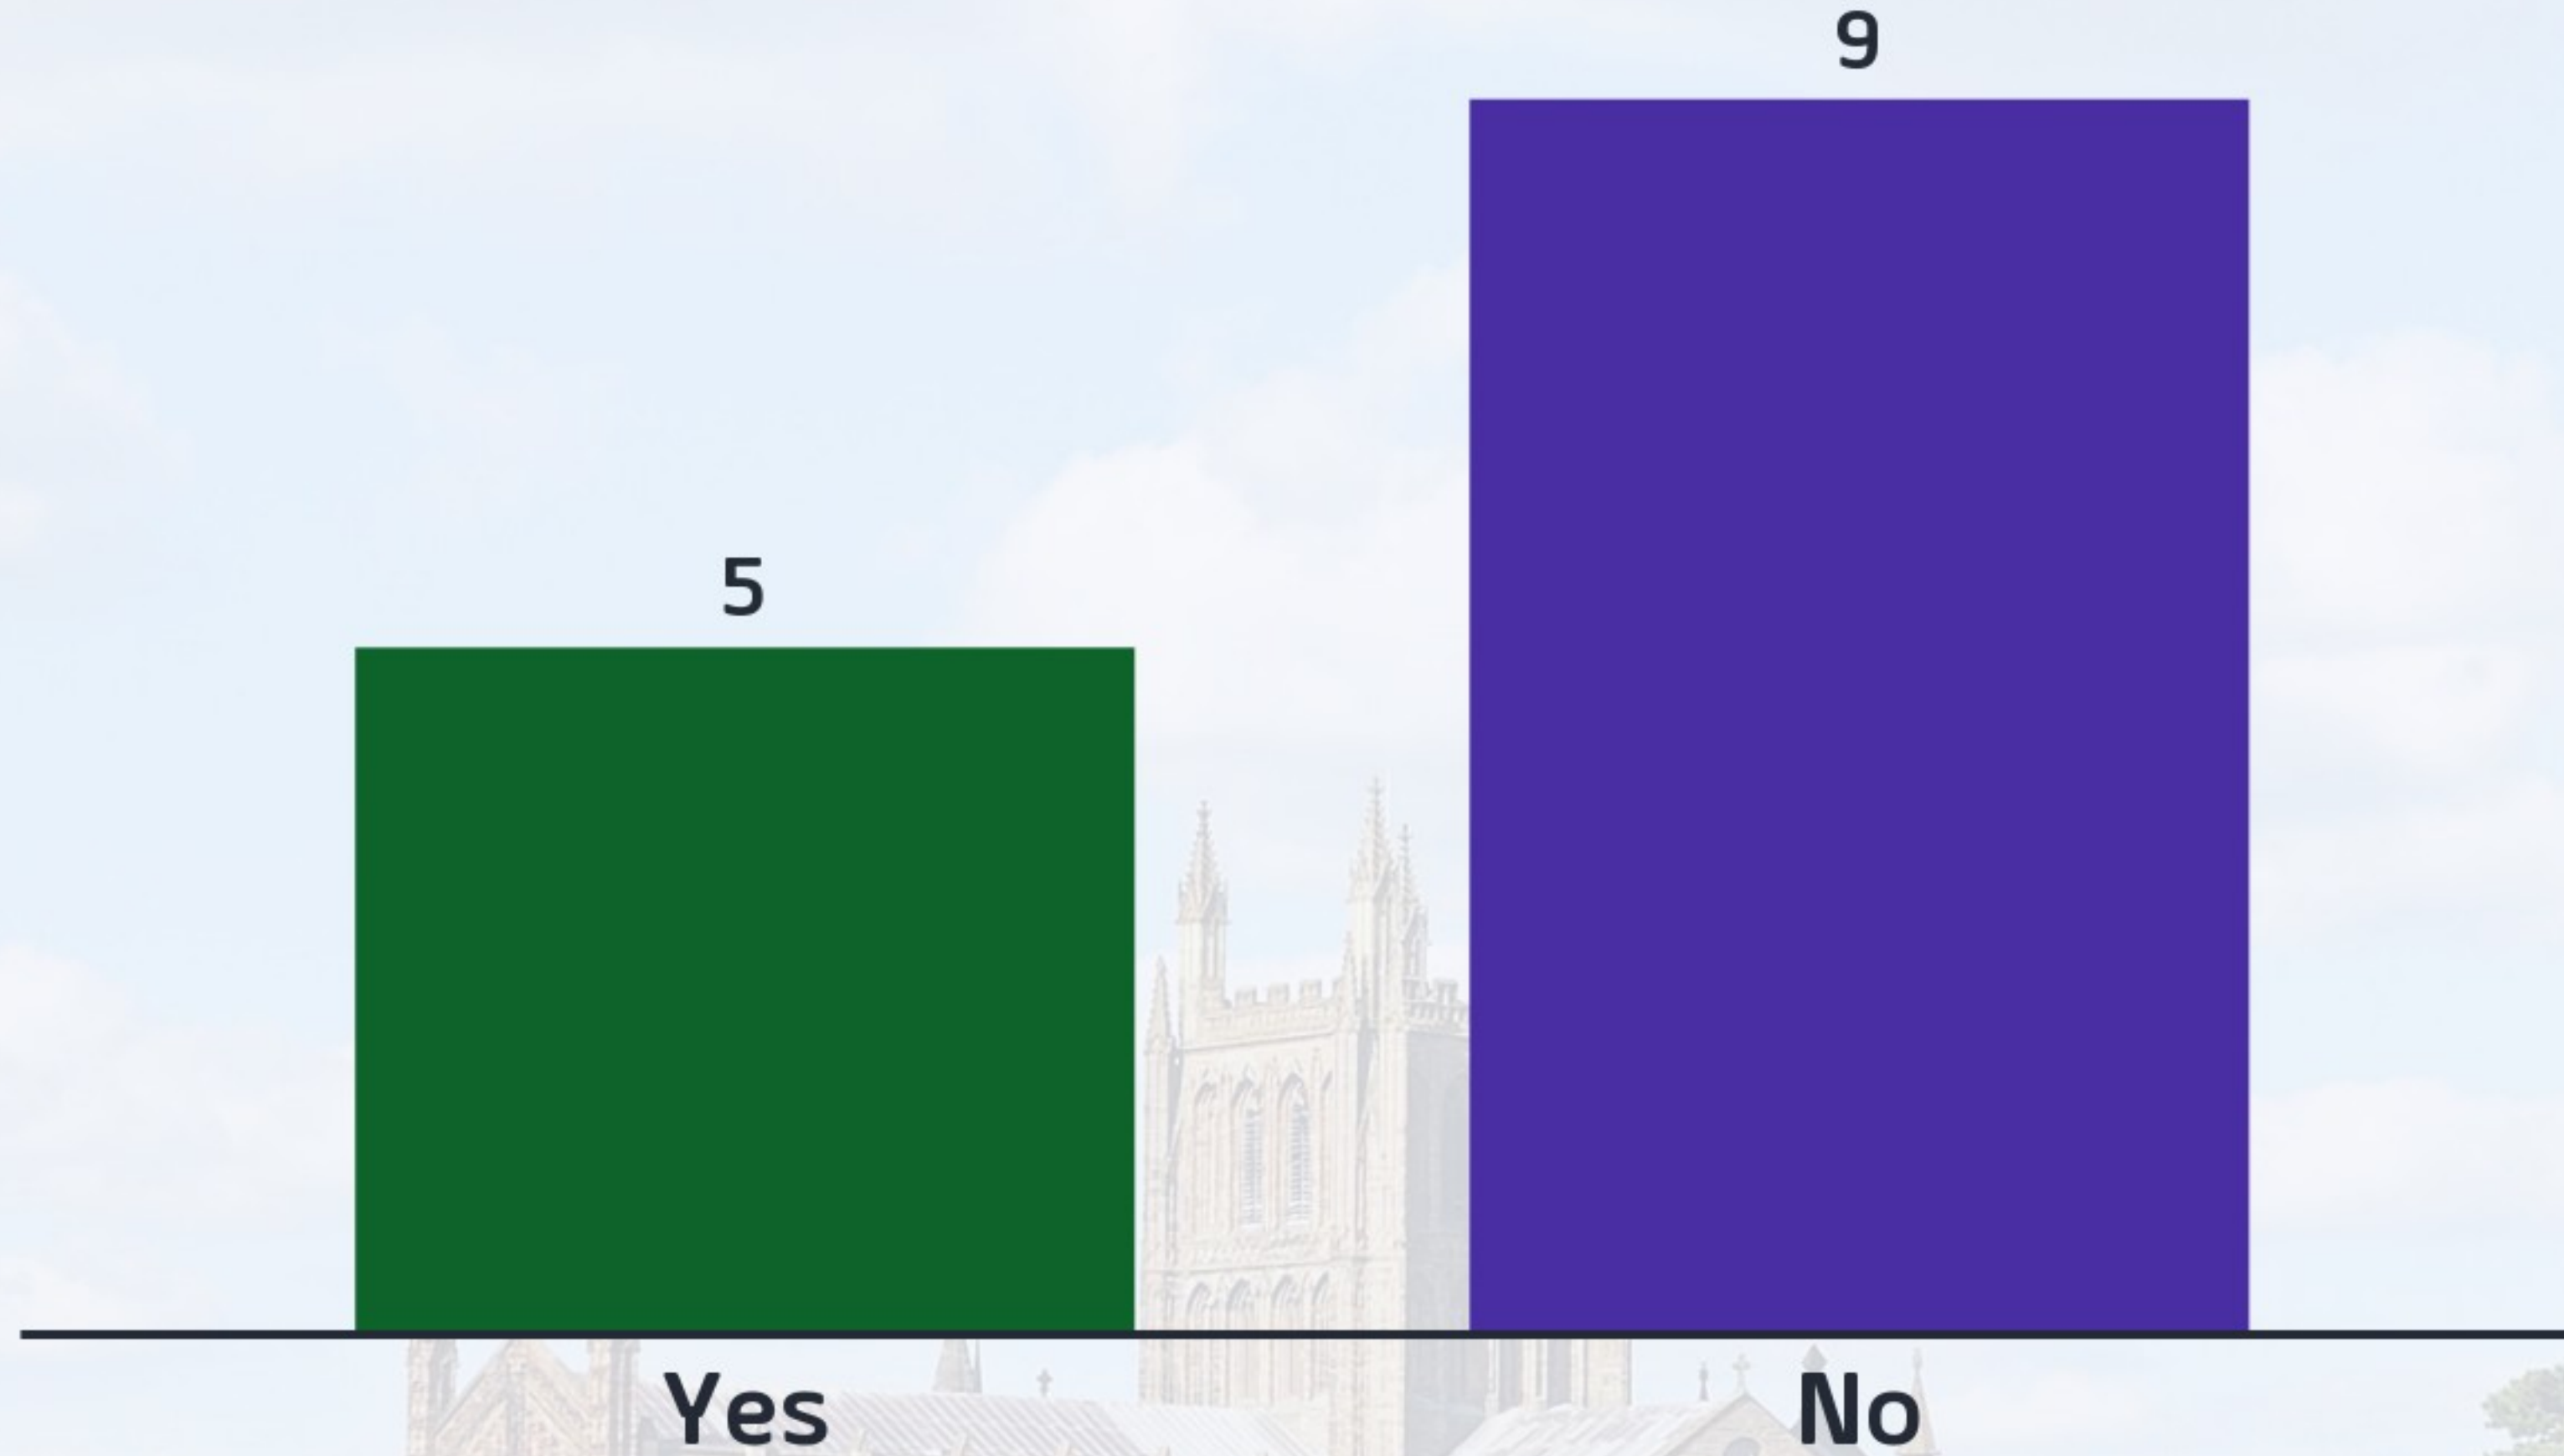

Do you count visitors?

Do you evaluate activities?

Do you check online listings / reviews?

Do you have a maintenance calendar?

Does your maintenance calendar include consideration of the effects of visitors?

