Stottesdon

St Mary's Church

Sacred space for almost 1000 years and off-the-beaten-track, St Mary's Church, Grade 1 listed and built of local stone, blends perfectly with the peace and quiet of the Shropshire Hills - with the nearby Clee Hill silently standing guard over the tranquil churchyard.

 Shropshire Hills AONB Pilgrim Trail

Located on the Welsh Marches border, the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty is an ideal area to take in the landscape on a pilgrimage, as well as the magnificent views along the way.

Shropshire Hills AONB is a living landscape, loved by locals and visitors alike for its quality of environment, rich history, and for walking, relaxation and inspiration.

Covering almost a quarter of Shropshire, this 7-day trail takes in a number of Shropshire Churches Tourism group churches throughout.

With the use of public transport (train or local bus) between Ludlow and Craven Arms, the Shropshire Hill AONB Pilgrim Trail is a circular route that will be enjoyed by anyone walking for spiritual revival, resting in Churches and taking advantage of the local hospitality along the way
