Cardington

St James

The elevated position of St James church in the centre of Cardington on what is believed to be an ancient henge monument gives it an impressive setting nestled among the surrounding hills with its tall crenelated tower visible from all approaches. Shropshire Hills AONB Pilgrim Trail

Located on the Welsh Marches border, the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty is an ideal area to take in the landscape on a pilgrimage, as well the magnificent views along the way.

Shropshire Hills AONB is a living landscape, loved by locals and visitors alike for its quality of environment, rich history, and for walking, relaxation and inspiration.

Covering almost a quarter of Shropshire, this 7-day trail takes in a number of Shropshire Churches Tourism group churches throughout.

With the use of public transport (train or local bus) between Ludlow and Craven Arms, the Shropshire Hill AONB Pilgrim Trail is a circular route that will be enjoyed by anyone walking for spiritual revival, resting in Churches and taking advantage of the local hospitality along the way.
