Update: October 05, 2021

The River Wye is the fourth-longest river in the UK, stretching some 155 miles from its source on Plynlimon in mid Wales to the Severn estuary. The lower part of this trail is called the Wye Valley and is a designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Starting in Hay on Wye, you can either hire a canoe or bring your own. On this relaxing trail, can take as long as you wish stopping overnight at various points, either on camp sites, in a B&B or hotel.

We reach the city of Hereford with a variety of places to eat out and stay overnight if required. Hereford Cathedral, with a Chained Library and Mappa Mundi, Hereford St Francis Xavier RC Church built in 1829 as a "Jesuit Temple" and designed according to classical Greek traditions and Hereford St Peter's Church being the oldest and largest parish church in the city. Founded in 1074 with an exhibition of the life and work of Rev John Venn. All are not to be missed.
